Greetings!

We look forward to meeting you at our 2016 Forum featuring Dr. Eduardo Martí author of America's Broken Promise: Bridging the Community College Achievement Gap. The forum will raise awareness about critical roles and trends in achievement gaps, provide insight on key strategies to move forward, and generate ideas on how to implement changes at both a macro and micro level. Please review additional information and updates below:

- CALAHE will bestow the Lifetime Achievement Award to both Dr. Elsa Núñez, President of Eastern CT State University and Dr. Wilfredo Nieves, President of Capital Community College.
- The conference begins at 9 a.m. for registration and continental breakfast. We will begin promptly at 9:30 a.m.
- The conference will be held in the 100 Building, Founders Hall.
- If you need directions you may click on the (Driving Directions Link) on the left-hand side of this email or click here. For a campus map click here.
- Parking is available on-site.
