

CONNECTICUT RECREATION AND PARKS ASSOCIATION, INC.

Established June 2004

CONSTITUTION

Article I – NAME

Section I

The name of this organization shall be the Connecticut Recreation and Parks Association, Inc.

Section II

This organization is an affiliate of the National Recreation and Parks Association

Article II – OBJECTIVES

The aims and objectives of the Association are as follows:

- To unite in one Association all professional recreation and park employees and advocates with common interests.
- To foster and maintain the highest standards of professional qualifications, training and ethics.
- To stimulate and promote widening interest in recreation and parks in local communities and statewide, through the conservation and development of the recreational and park resources of the state.
- To promote the study and research for the improvement of recreational and park services.
- To promote a broader education of the principles and goals of the Recreation, Parks and Conservation movement to all persons.
- To review public policy initiatives that may impact our membership and to educate membership, policy makers and the general public thereon.
- To affiliate for mutual benefit and cooperation with those organizations in similar or related fields on the State or National level.
- To function in such a manner as will further the interest of the Recreation and Park movement and its membership.
- To install a sense of pride in the conservation of our natural resources, through both education and example.

Article III – MEMBERSHIP

Section I

The Membership of this Association shall be limited to Group Membership and Individual Membership. Classifications shall be limited to those meeting the requirements as provided in the By-Laws.

Article IV – MANAGEMENT

The management of this Association shall be vested in the Executive Board, composed of the Officers as well as eight (8) Members-at-Large and the Immediate Past President. The members-at-large serve for three overlapping terms and officers shall serve for two-year terms commencing on January 1 and ending on December 31.

Article V – OFFICERS

Section I

The Officers of the Association shall be, President, President-Elect, Treasurer, Secretary and Immediate Past President. The functions for the Executive Board shall be specific in the By-Laws.

Section II

The President-Elect upon completion of his/her two-year term, shall automatically become President for a two-year term.

Section III

Nominees for Office to the Board shall be members in good standing for at least one year prior to the meeting at which they are to be elected and meet all requirements as prescribed in the By-Laws.

Article VI – COMMITTEES

Section I

The President, with the approval of the Executive board, shall appoint the chairperson of standing committees from among the membership as provided for in the By-Laws.

Section II

The duties of the standing committees shall be described in the Association’s official “Manual of Policies and Procedures”.

Section III

Special Committees, as deemed necessary, may be appointed from among the membership by the President with the approval of the Executive Board.

Article VII – ELECTIONS

Section I

Elections shall be conducted according to the By-Laws

Article VIII – AMENDMENTS

Section I

The Constitution may be amended:

- a. By a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the eligible members voting at the Annual Meeting by mail or in person or:
- b. By a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the eligible members who have returned ballots by the date designated by the Secretary (by mail only)

Section II

The Secretary, who shall conduct the ballot, must allow at least thirty (30) days between mailing the proposed amendment and ballot and formalizing the results of the returned ballots.