KEYNOTE SPEAKER: DR. EARL A. GROLLMAN

Dr. Earl A. Grollman, a pioneer in the field of crisis intervention, was rabbi of the Beth El Temple Center in Belmont, Massachusetts for thirty-six years. A past president of the Massachusetts Board of Rabbis, he retired early from his congregation so that he could devote himself to writing and lecturing. A certified Death Educator and Counselor, he was cited as “Hero of The Heartland” for his work with the families and volunteers of the Oklahoma City Bombing. Other accomplishments include:

- the Death Education Award for 2000 by the Association for Death Education and Counseling (ADEC);
- the Lifetime Achievement Award from Children Hospice International in honor of his compassionate efforts;
- the Hospice Care Award for “his significant contribution to the understanding of the plight of the terminally ill and the bereaved”;
- the Avery Weisman Award from the American Institute of Life-Threatening Illness and Loss;
- the Distinguished Human Service Award from Yeshiva University;
- the Compassionate Friends Award.

Named “Person of the Year” by the National Center for Death Education, Dr. Grollman has served as a member of the Professional Advisory Board of the Foundation of Thanatology at Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center of New York, Chairperson of the Massachusetts Ecumenical Council on Health and Morality. He was a founder of the Good Grief Program that provides crisis intervention to schools and community groups to help children and adolescents when a friend, teacher, or parent is terminally ill or dies. He is also one of the founders of Hospice West, as well as the Samaritans, which is devoted to suicide prevention and counseling.

Dr. Grollman has authored twenty-seven books, with more than half a million in print. The volume “Talking About Death” received the UNESCO award of the International Children and Youth Book Exhibition in Munich. He and his daughter, Sharon Grollman, co-authored the “Talking About” series, which addresses different types of crises that children and adults must often face, and is now being used in schools throughout the United States and Canada. Dr. Grollman has spoken at many colleges, clergy institutes, seminaries, physician’s forums, and hospital nursing associations; and addressed many support groups such as Compassionate Friends, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, and Widows Personal Services.

We would like to thank the Massachusetts 9/11 fund, in particular David Hastings for their support and participation in this event. We remember all of the victims that were lost on 9/11/01. For more information regarding the 9/11 Fund, please visit www.massfund.org.

For the Seventh Annual Honor Program, the speakers and music were thoughtfully selected to commemorate the 10th Anniversary of 9/11.

- Lt. Pauline Wells of the Cambridge Police Department started her singing career by accident, on a visit to a local pub in Cork City, Ireland. Shortly after the attacks of 9/11/2001, Pauline learned the National Anthem and her rendition has often been described as spirited and pure. Since then, Pauline has committed all of her musical effort towards charitable and civic groups and donates 100% of her earnings. Five years ago she created a charitable endeavor called "A Celtic Crossing." ~ paulinewells.com
- Carolyn Waters has called New England home for over a decade. A relative newcomer to the stage, her powerful, riveting voice has already gained her a wonderful reputation as a crowd pleaser as she moves effortlessly from folk, gospel, jazz, to the good old fashioned foot stomping blues. Performing with various accompanying musicians ranging from a single guitarist to a four piece band complete with back-up singers, Carolyn was honored recently with an invitation to perform at a gala featuring Judy Collins and Tom Rush. ~ carolynwatersmusic.com

We have continued the tradition of a "Remembrance Board" and video gallery which can be viewed in the lobby of 100 Cambridge Street throughout the evening. The photographs, poems, and other memories allow families and friends to specially recognize their lost love ones with all attending tonight's ceremony. The video will be available on the Garden's website at gardenofpeacememorial.org.

The Garden Board hopes that you found peace and comfort in this year's Honor Program. If you would like to volunteer for future programs or for other Garden activities throughout the year, please contact the garden at 617.523.0402 or e-mail info@gardenofpeacememorial.org.
